NEEPIER SCHOOL - 1898 - 2007 Old Frederick Road, Colonial Gardens. One of seven schools built with an appropriation of $20,000. Merged with Westchester school in 1924. Then adapted as a dwelling, first by Edward N. Thomey, next by Dr. Francis W. Janney. In 1953 extensively refurbished by John W. Pascal, who added indirect lighting and knotty pine paneling. The original contractor in 1898 was John Hughes. Fully reported in contemporary issues of the Argus. Mrs. Dolores Pascal died in 1987. House demolished 1988.
